AdvoCare Hosts Town Hall Meeting with U.S. Representative Marc Veasey

(PLANO, TX) – AdvoCare International, LP (AdvoCare), a premier health and wellness company, invited Congressman Marc Veasey (TX-33) to a Town Hall Meeting on Jan. 23 at the company's corporate headquarters in Plano, to discuss a number of issues relevant to the company, its Independent Distributors and employees. The Town Hall Meeting was the first official visit by a congressman to the company, which has seen significant growth and celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2013.

Major topics of discussion included possible changes in independent contractor status and income tax requirements, health care benefits and the value of education. Additionally, the forum included discussions about the importance of highlighting available income and job opportunities in the community, such as the business opportunity AdvoCare offers.

"The Town Hall Meeting was an opportunity for us to introduce Rep. Veasey to AdvoCare, as well as for employees and Independent Distributors to hear directly how he addresses issues to help create change in the community he serves and beyond," said Allison Levy, vice president and chief legal officer for AdvoCare.

Congressman Marc Veasey proudly represents Texas' newly drawn Congressional District 33 in the U.S. House of Representatives and joined Congress with more than a decade of public service experience.

As a Member of the U.S. House of Representatives, Rep. Veasey is committed to creating jobs, encouraging economic growth, improving public education, supporting the passage of comprehensive immigration reform, promoting health and wellness and ensuring access to quality healthcare.
